

Registration and Activation: Can I transfer my license to another machine, how?

Yes, you can transfer the license to another machine.

If you want to transfer the license to another machine, you will have to send the Activation details from the new machine to register@escanav.com

To get the Activation details from your machine, please visit the below link.

http://www.escanav.com/english/content/products/generic\_eScan/knowhowto\_registerproduct\_Email.asp

You will have to email the details to us, along with the activation code you have on the old machine.

To get the activation code from the old machine, goto Start>>Programs>>eScan for windows>>eScan registration. It would be wise to mention in the email that you want to transfer the license from 1 machine to another.

Please Note: After we receive your email. The activation code from your old machine will be suspended. eScan on the old machine will be disabled.
